50th Anniversary Countdown—1 Month to Go!!!

President's Message

The big news is that for the second straight year, the Chapter has been notified that it will receive a 5 Star Level of Excellence Award for 2005. Scoring for this award includes routine factors such as providing National with a current roster and officer list, holding meetings, and publishing a newsletter, plus maintaining positive legislative, membership, personal affairs, JROTC, and scholarship programs. This is the highest award available from MOAA National. Congratulations to all officers and members that have made this possible, and who have continued their efforts during 2006 which should put us in line for another award next year.

Our major activity during the Summer Break has been planning for the 50th Anniversary celebration. Things are taking shape with reservations coming in on almost a daily basis and program details are being worked out. Thank you to the committee for this continued effort. Make sure that you get your reservation in as soon as you can. Remember that the reservation deadline is October 1st; less than a month away.

Dee Norton has continued to send out Chapter membership solicitations with good results. She is also sending out National membership solicitations as part of the 2006 National Give Me 10! Program. Thank you Dee for this fine effort.

I hope to see all of you at the September luncheon. This might be a good time to make your 50th anniversary reservation.

Daniel M. Conway

The volunteerism of each of the JROTC award presenters is appreciated by all members of the Chapter for their presentation of JROTC certificates and medals to the sixteen high schools under the cognizance of the Arizona Chapter of the Military Officers Association of America.

The following letter of appreciation was recently received from Cadet Taylor Eberle of the Shadow Mountain High School AFJROTC Unit.

*"I would like to thank the MOAA for your outstanding support of the Air Force Junior ROTC program. The presentation of National Awards is the highlight of annual cadet group activities. Every member of the cadet group appreciates your sponsoring our unit by providing an award. As this year's recipient of the MOAA Award, I would like to thank you personally for the honor you bestowed upon me. I will strive to continuously exhibit the virtues and characteristics which this prestigious award represents. ## BACKPACKING/CAMPING TRIPS

GRAND CANYON RIM TO RIM TREK

Grand Canyon is a land to humble the soul. The world seems larger with sunrises, sunsets and storms adding a surreal dimension to the overwhelming landscape. Traveling by foot, we will intimately explore the vast yet intricate face of this startling landscape. We spend three nights below the rim at NPS developed campsites, four days of cross canyon hiking through the most visually powerful vistas on the planet and end with a hot meal at the historic Bright Angel Lodge. For the experienced BACKPACKER, this 21-mile trek through 9000 feet of geological history is an outstanding example of the strenuous, yet rewarding world of Grand Canyon trekking.

Trip Details: Date: September 29-October 2 and October 18-21 (trip dates may vary due to permit availability). Trip Cost: $375 per person includes equipment, food, permits, park entrance fee, transportation, and experienced trip leaders.

HAVASU FALLS BACKPACKING

Explore this world-famous desert oasis of the Havasupai Nation. Havasu Creek is well known for its crystal clear blue-green waters and seemingly tropical vistas that contrast sharply with the stark desert beauty of Grand Canyon. Along this 20-mile hike we will visit 200-foot waterfalls, enjoy the natural Travertine swimming pools and sample the native fare. We will be camping guests of the Havasupai tribe as our hike takes us to their remote and nearly inaccessible village of Supia on their homelands.

Trip Details: Dates: October 6-8
Trip Cost: $300 per person includes equipment, food, permits, camping fee, transportation, and experienced trip leaders.

GRAND CANYON BACKPACKING

KAIBAB LOOP

The Bright Angel/South Kaibab Loop is a must-do for Grand Canyon visitors wanting to see the canyon from the inside out. Not only is it the most popular trail, but also it is arguably one of the most beautiful. You spend two nights at the bottom of the canyon, camping alongside Bright Angel Creek. Day hikes to remote hidden waterfalls, or along the river during our layover day enable you to absorb the true feel of the Inner Canyon. This corridor loop is an outstanding trip for experienced hikers wishing to "Do the Canyon".

Trip Details: Date: October 27-29 (trip dates may change due to permit restrictions) Trip Cost: $285 per person includes equipment, food, permits, park entrance fee, camping fee, transportation, and experienced trip leaders.

ALTERNATIVE ADVENTURES

ANTELOPE CANYON- LAKE POWELL TOUR

Antelope Canyon is at once one of the most breathtaking and tranquil places on earth. Gently carved from the Navajo sandstone over the course of countless millenniums, the slot canyons are majestic and narrow passages, just enough space for a small group to walk the sandy floor - and for the occasional shafts of sunlight to shine down from above. Join us for a weekend adventure, which features this fascinating area and camping along nearby Lake Powell. Led by native Navajo guides will we spend most of our two days exploring the two slot canyons that make up Antelope Canyon as well as the shores of beautiful Lake Powell. Many hours will be available for photographing these visual splendors. Trip Details: Dates- Oct. 14-15, Cost $150 per person includes Navajo Tour, camping equipment and fees, food and transportation.

Legislative Update
by Gary Fredricks

AZ Chapter MOAA Members

The following information was briefed by Pat Chorpenning, Director of the Arizona Department of Veterans Services at this month's Unified Arizona Veterans (UAV) meeting which CW4 Bob Delker USA (RET) and I attended. It was also provided through the Arizona Veterans Advisory Service Commission. Please share it as widely as possible. While we will always have more work to do, this is the culmination of a concerted effort that began last year when the Governor appointed a Veterans Task Force. Bob Delker and I attended most of those Task Force meetings which were professionally run by Pat Chorpenning, The Task Force final recommendations were virtually all included in the Governor's budget request this year and most found their way into the final bills although sometimes not at the full amounts requested. I think we should all feel good about the results of this year's state budget activities as far as military/veterans affairs goes and look forward to continuing our efforts next year

Side-by-Side Comparison
Based on the Governor's Veterans Task Force Recommendations

Governor's Recommendation		Legislative Appropriation

Accordingly, the Task Force recommended to the Governor 40 additional VBCs to meet this need.	1,125,000	Twenty-one (21) fully funded Veteran Benefits Counselors	945,000
Agency Support Staff The Governor recommended $558,200 General Fund for 15.0 FTE positions as support staff for ADVS. This recommendation includes $75,000 in one-time equipment funding. The Arizona Veterans Task Force recommended the additional support.	558,200	Four (4) fully funded support staff	180,000
Rural Arizona Veteran Outreach Program The Governor recommends $50,000 for five outreach events in Arizona. These events will bring State agencies and veterans service organizations together to provide "one-stop" services for rural veterans. The Arizona Veterans Task Force recommended that the Governor address this issue in the Executive Recommendation.	50,000	Veteran One-stop Supermarket Outreach	50,000

Personal Affairs

by Bernie Conway

Individual Member's Responsibility to their Spouse or Next of Kin

It is heartbreaking to hear a surviving spouse of a military retiree say "I don't know what to do or where to turn to for help." There is no good reason for this to happen, because preparing their spouse or their next of kin for their death is not only a retiree's moral responsibility, it is easy to do, especially with all the helpful aids that are currently available.

The first step a retiree should take is to assemble a list of all pertinent personal affairs documentation and explain the locations of these materials. The PERSONAL AFFAIRS WORKBOOK in the MOAA pamphlet HELP YOUR SURVIVING SPOUSE - NOW ! is an excellent aid for this project. This document has been distributed at several chapter luncheon meetings, and additional copies will be available at the next luncheon. Individual Member's Responsibility to their Spouse or Next of Kin.

Also there is a list of pertinent military records and related documents which will also be distributed at the next luncheon. Obviously, most personal affairs documents need to be carefully safeguarded in a safe or safety deposit box, but this list of document's locations needs to be kept in such a manner as to be available when needed by the retirees Spouse, NOK, or by a Survivor Assistance Team volunteer.

The second step a retiree should take is to prepare a Letter of Instructions to the spouse or next of kin with a copy to a Personal Representative who will act for you in case the spouse or NOK is incapacitated. This letter should address the first actions that should be taken and include directions on how to get immediate assistance and how to locate the list of other personal affairs documentation referred to in the previous paragraph. The letter should be kept in a readily available and easy to remember place. A copy of this form will also be available at the next luncheon. Seems like a good incentive to come to the next luncheon.

See you there!

TRICARE NEWS

Taking the guesswork out of second opinions with TRICARE

By Mark Jecker,
TriWest Healthcare Alliance

It's an iffy question – under what circumstances should patients seek second opinions?

At last, there are some definite guidelines to that sometimes difficult question.

In a new brochure, the U. S. Department of Health and Human Services' Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality (AHRQ) encourages patients facing non-emergency surgery to do their homework about the procedure, facility and surgical team, and to get a second opinion.

The brochure, Having Surgery? What You Need to Know, emphasizes the importance of patients and their families asking questions about recommended non-emergency surgery so they can understand what will be done and why. Recommended questions include:

- Why do I need an operation?
- Would you explain the operation you are recommending?
- Are there any alternatives to surgery?
- What are the benefits/risks of having this surgery?
- What are the hazards of not having this surgery?
- How long will it take me to recover?
- Where can I get a second opinion?

TRICARE beneficiaries are entitled to request a second opinion from another specialist. Unlike Standard beneficiaries, Prime beneficiaries must first obtain a referral from their primary care manager (PCM) and an authorization from TriWest.

Obtaining a specialist's services without the proper referral and authorization makes a Prime beneficiary responsible for higher, out-of-pocket costs under the point of service option.

The Having Surgery? What You Need to Know brochure is available on the AHRQ Web site: <http://www.ahrq.gov/consumer/surgery/surgery.htm>, or by calling 1-800-621-4111.

Information about TRICARE benefits, referrals and authorizations is available at www.triwest.com or www.tricare.osd.mil, or by calling 1-888-TRIWEST (1-888-874-9378).
